

Here's what happened in worship this past Sunday.

This week in worship we heard from the gospel of Luke, in this passage Jesus talks about how to follow Him and who can follow him. Jesus says that if you don't commit fully forsaking all things you cannot be his disciple. In the sermon Pastor Nathan taught us about the lectionary and how sometimes it forces us to face some hard saying from Jesus. This week's gospel was one of those hard passages. So we read it full of questions about what Jesus means, and how we can do the things he says we must do to follow Jesus. We learned that we come to the Gospel and hear that we are sinners and need God's Grace. We also hear that God's Grace is big enough to cover us all. So we come to scripture, even the hard ones, looking to see both the Law of God as well as the Gospel. In the end we left knowing that we do know Jesus and we can follow him because the Grace of God is big enough. His love is big enough for me and for you even when we stray.
